

The community is invited to a screening of Defining Hope,
a new documentary following eight patients with life-threatening illness and the nurses who guide them.

Defining Hope explores what makes life worth living and what to do for ourselves and our loved ones as we get closer to the end of life. Through the stories of patients, families, nurses, and healthcare professionals, the conversation around quality end-of-life care is brought to the forefront.

Please join Hospice of Northwest Ohio on Wednesday, November 1.

12 - 1:30 p.m. at the Toledo Hospice Center
800 South Detroit Avenue, Toledo

or

6 - 7:30 p.m. at the Perrysburg Hospice Center
30000 East River Road, Perrysburg

A light meal will be provided free of charge at both screenings.
For questions, please contact Jennifer Joseph at 419.931.5191 or visit hope.film online.

There is no need to RSVP!

Nurses will receive 1.25 free contact hours for watching the film and completing the evaluation thanks to the generous support of Walden University. Walden University is accredited as a provider of continuing nursing education by the American Nurses Credentialing Center's Commission on Accreditation.
